

Olivier Nana Nzepa

ICT lecturer with the Advanced School of mass communication (University of Yaounde) and Professor/Consultant in Public Management at the Institute Supérieur de Management Public (Yaounde- Cameroon) Dr. Olivier NANA NZEPA is holder of a Ph.D. in communication from University of Montreal (Canada); a M.A. in International relations from ENAP (Montreal); a M.A in Business management (H.E.C. Montreal); a M.sc in communication (University of Montreal) and a Bachelor in journalism from University of Yaounde (Cameroon).

He is currently ICT Expert for : UNDP; UNESCO; UNECA; CIDA; Francophonie, Atos KPMG consulting (for west and central africa); He is member of international research network on ICT amongst which ResearchICTAfrica (RIA); Management and Change in Africa; Science et Francophonie.

His involvement in the WSIS process dates back from the beginning and covers a large variety of activities (advocacy, research, social activities etc.). His social engagement covers a variety of responsibilities:

- General coordinator of the Africa Civil Society for Information Society (ACSIS);
- Africa Region focal point on the International Civil Society Bureau for the WSIS;
- Member of the Africa Bureau representing Civil society;
- Member of the RALO Africa; AT Large committee and NCUC of ICANN;
- Editor of a french quarterly dedicated to the Information Society titled " Le défi numérique".